

Residential Internet Solutions

More and more people today are upgrading to high speed internet access in their homes through DSL, Cable Modems or Satellite. Brown Dog Networks high speed access operates over a fixed wireless connection between the home and one of our locations removing the need for leased lines which increases reliability and speed from end to end. Our service offers high speed

, low latency connections

great

for downloading, gaming, VPN clients, interactive studies, super fast browsing, and speedy uploads for those large emails. Check out our competitive pricing packages for a very affordable rate to fit nearly any budget.

Business Solutions

Brown Dog Networks offers many packages for high speed business connectivity. We offer high speed wireless internet, as well as our traditional wireline internet solutions. The need for internet access in the business setting is more crucial than ever. Brown Dog Networks offers packages suitable for the small office to the large corporation, with speeds from 256K to 10mb/s.